"Mein kisko partyyo kehte hain (In spite of which they are threatening me)," Kanhaiya told ANI after a meeting with Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) national president Amit Shah and West Bengal Governor M K Narayanan. Kanhaiya's revelation comes barely a week after the country went to polls. The JNU students' union is heading towards electoral disaster in the form of the polls. Meanwhile, JNUSU vice-president Kanhaiya's arrest has made headlines. The entire country stands in solidarity with the university students and condemns the government's action on them. The BJP accused the Congress, the Left and the CPM of using Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) as a political weapons. 'JNU is officially an anti-national institution' "What has happened in JNU is a 'conspiracy' on part of Congress, CPI and CPM. The Congress, CPI and CPM were after sowing seeds of communal and anti-national activities in the minds of youth of the country. This conspiracy has to be deflated, and if this conspiracy is not deflated, then the country is bound to lose its wealth", said Union minister Narendra Modi.Manila (AFP) - The Philippines is concerned that Russia's annexation of Crimea risks destabilising a country that is already politically fragmented, a source in Manila said Thursday. "We are concerned that the situation in Ukraine is slipping out of control, and that the actions of Russia are raising 0cc13bf012
